ADDITIONAL EDUCATION

LinkedIn Learning.

MAY 2021 - PRESENT.
As known, working in the web development or programming field means that at times, teamwork is required to achieve certain set goals. During my free time, I did some online linkedin courses and completed them successfully. These courses include;

● Developing Emotional Intelligence.
● Leading Oneself
● Teamwork

The 3 completed courses gave me a better insight on working with others and having a self leading mindset towards achieving my goals.
Completion certificates present on my Linkedin profile
